

PENNSYLVANIA ASSOCIATION of COMMUNITY HEALTH CENTERS

Supporting access to affordable, high quality health care

Pennsylvania's Community Health Centers, also known as federally qualified health centers or FQHCs, are unique nonprofit primary care facilities that are able to provide a wide array of services to Pennsylvanians in under-served areas of the state

Share Your Story

Personal stories are the most powerful tool we have in protecting Community Health Centers and health insurance coverage including Medicaid. Stories can help influence lawmakers and policymakers, inspire neighbors to become an advocate or help someone understand the importance of our fight to protect quality affordable health care.
